

Resilience Fund Checklist

$5,000 grants to build resilience

APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED JUNE 1 – 30

Eligibility

- Commercial customer of PG&E or SoCalGas.
- California restaurant or commercial caterer owned by a California resident.
- Currently open restaurants with 1-5 locations may apply, but only 1 location per business can be submitted, with annual revenue of up to $3M for that location.
- Have been in business for at least one full year (opened since June 1, 2025) or recently expanded to a brick-and-mortar*.
- Previous grant recipients may apply again for a different location or concept.

\ RECENTLY EXPANDED? If your brick-and-mortar restaurant has been open for less than one year, you may still be eligible. To qualify, you must have previously operated a food business such as a food truck, commercial catering, or pop-up, for at least one full year. In this case, you may submit: one year of revenue documentation from your existing business, and a commercial utility bill for your new location.*

Items to have ready

- W-9 Form.
- Commercial utility bill from PG&E or SoCalGas *must say “commercial” on the bill.
- Government issued photo ID of the owner: such as a driver’s license or passport.
- How would you use the funds? Eligible categories are:
  - Kitchen Equipment
  - Technology Upgrades
  - Employee Training and Bonuses
  - Unforeseen Hardship (for example: vandalism, robbery, restaurant fire or flood that has occurred within the last 12 months)

(CONTINUE ON BACK)

Resilience Fund Checklist (cont.)

- Annual Gross Revenue Documentation: submit a single report showing your annual gross revenue for a 12-month period. You may provide either: a full calendar year snapshot (January–December 2025), or a rolling 12-month period (e.g., June 1, 2025–June 1, 2026). Applicants must provide one (1) of the following:
  - Profit and Loss (P&L) Statement covering the selected 12-month period
  - Year-End Financial Statement
  - POS or Accounting System Report (e.g., Toast, Square, QuickBooks) showing 12 months of gross sales

- A picture that captures your restaurant or catering business – your crew at work, your restaurant, owners, etc. The photo may be used for marketing purposes.

- Response to the questions:
  - How would you use this grant?
  - How would this make your business more resilient?
  - What’s one thing you want people to know about your business?
  - How is your restaurant involved in the community?
